Hi Betty,

While I had 2 seconds, I decided to look for Browns in the stack that Kevin Rose has sent.

Over a year ago and after many inquiries about the Roudebush family from Kevin, I compiled the Roudebush family tree from Ancestry to see how Kevin and I were related. I sent it to him, and then came the flood of letters, questions, and stacks of genealogy materials.

Just this past week Kevin sent me a book about the Roudebush family. I just looked at it and pulled out the info on the Browns. I am glad someone has worked on this Roudebush family.

The second connection was made when Kevin discovered his Owen William Brown and my Ida Edith Brown were siblings. See attached info about the marriage of Owen Brown and Lillie Bell Wheeler. A another stack of materials arrived soon after.

He writes me letters (actually I think his wife is the genealogist writing the letters), and I am lost most of the time what they are talking about, and can't answer the questions they are asking because I haven't worked on the family much.

A recent note from Kevin/Lynn: "We were talking with Aunt Betty and she told us that she remembered her mother Lena telling her that there were three sets of twins born to the Brown side of the family, but not all of them lived. We are now figuring out it must have been to Owen and Lillie Bell (Wheeler) Brown. Do you know anything about the twins?"

I didn't have a clue and couldn't answer that one.

I'm sure all the enclosed info will make more sense to you. Here is Kevin's address if you want to contact him.

Brown/Wheeler Wedding. Owen William Brown of Monroeville, Indiana and Miss. Lillie Bell Wheeler of Warsaw, Indiana were united in marriage on the evening of December 24, 1909 at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Otus P. (Sarah Clementine or Clementine Sarah Wheeler) Miner, of Arthur Street, Warsaw, Indiana. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. Neal of the M.E. Church. The couple will make their home at Monroeville, Indiana. Owen William Brown was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. and Martha Brown. Lillie Bell Wheeler was the daughter of Charles and Harriet (Reed) Wheeler. Charles Wheeler was the son of Sanford and Harriet (Pratt) Wheeler and Harriet Reed was the daughter of John N. and Samantha R. (Nutting) Reed. Another one of John N. and Samantha R. Reeds daughters was Ida Mae Reed. Ida was the mother of Lena Reed. Lena married John Russell Rose, the son of Sylvester Ralph and Margaret Lillian (Roudebush) Rose.

This was in the Daily Times newspaper, Warsaw, Indiana on Tuesday, December 28, 1909.

STATE _____ DATE _____ REVISED _____

Dear Cousins: '

Here are your roots, that I promised you. I first want you to know that most of the credit for the history of the Roudebush family goes to a Donald Roudebush of Ill. We have much, much more information but thought at this time I would just give you the direct lineage.

I feel we can be very proud of our ancestors on this side, they seem to be honest, God loving, and hard workers.

A new found friend from Hoagland, her husband is a distant kin of ours, has been working on the this for fifteen years. She has given me the info. on the Brown family, I had no idea that they had come to Indiana with the Roudebushs. As I told you before, it seemd tha family traveled together. One interesting thing, at least to me, Cousins married cousing. In those days, you met and married the nearest person, or so at seems. Anyway, your Great great Grandfather Tobias and his sister, both married Browns. So that means their children had the same grandpatents. And this summer I found out that a little lady just four doors away, is a decendant of William Brown and Susannah Roudebush. So I was very happy to beable to talk to her, she is 94 yrs old and knew Gr-Aunt Lil, but nothing about Grandpa George,

Here is some of the information on the Brown family Jame & Mary Brown were born in Va. Where is unknown at this time James b (1787), Mary b(1792) they came to Columbiana (now Carroll) Co., Ohio sometime before 1820, and came to Allen Co. In. either 1851 or 52. James died in Monroe Twp.

Allen Co., In. 10/21/1860, Mary died 9/21/1860, they are both buried in the old Brown Cemetery. Their Children were as follows: Elizabeth b 1808 d 2/27/1868 m Tobias Roudebush, William b 1/14/1810 d 4/14/1893 m Susannah Roudebush, Mary m 1840 to John Brown, Nancy b (1818) m 1838 to David Johnson, John b (1823) d 1899 m 1845 to Mary Albaugh, three more daughters names unknown.

In case I have lost you, James and Mary Brown would be your Great-gr-gr- grandparents on the grandmothers' side.

Now I am interested in finding out more on Gr-Grandfather James' wife Susan (Roudebush). We do know that her maiden name was King, that she was born in Adams Co. and that Tobias' farm was about ½ mile west of the Massilon Cemetery on the north side of the road. There was a King family that lived within a mile of them, so this will be my next lead. Thre was also a Susan King age 16 living with a family by th e name of Miler ? who was listed as born in Oh. The Miler family lived next door to the William Browns' and since Susan married when she was 17, perhaps this was her. I also need to get more information on Grandmother Nans' family, the Cullys. HELP?

Excuse the typing and let me hear from you,

Much love,

P.S. Pls Correct any errors that you see, and I am sending this to just one person per family, Pls share & copy. If you ever get to a library start looking at Census or Adams Co., In. research. For Cully or King. Thanks Also see why Doris has asked for the dates on your families? I know how difficult it is because I had the same duty for my own family this Christmas, Don't even have Doris and Raymonds family dates'.

Copies sent to Robert Kanavel, Alberta Wright, Dorothy Cunningham Nancy Burr, Carol Roudebush.
